JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANT WILLIAM STENGER

This cause comes before the Court upon the Motion by Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission for a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief against Defendant William Stenger (“Judgment”) [ECF No. 206]. By the Consent annexed hereto, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Amended Complaint (except that Stenger admits the jurisdiction of this Court over him and over the subject matter of this action), Stenger has entered a general appearance, agreed to entry of this Judgment, waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and waived any right to appeal from this Judgment. The Court finds that good cause exists for entry of the Judgment. Accordingly, the Commission's Motion is GRANTED. The Court further orders as follows:

I.

PERMANENT INJUNCTION

A. Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Stenger is permanently restrained and enjoined from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") (15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)) in the offer or sale of any security by the use of any means or instruments of transportation or communication in interstate commerce or by use of the mails, directly or indirectly:

- (1) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (2) to obtain money or property by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (3) to engage in any transaction, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser;

by, directly or indirectly (i) creating a false appearance or otherwise deceiving any person, or (ii) disseminating false or misleading documents, materials, or information or making, either orally or in writing, any false or misleading statement in any communication with any investor or prospective investor; about: (A) any investment in or offering of securities, (B) the registration status of such offering or of such securities, (C) the prospects for success of any product or company, (D) the use of investor funds, or (E) the misappropriation of investor funds or investment proceeds.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d)(2), the foregoing paragraph also binds the following who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise: (a) any of Stenger's officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys; and (b) other persons in active concert or participation with Stenger.

B. Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Stenger is permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") (15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)) and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder (17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5), by using any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange, in connection with the purchase or sale of any security:

- (a) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (b) to make any untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (c) to engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

by (i) creating a false appearance or otherwise deceiving any person, or (ii) disseminating false or misleading documents, materials, or information or making, either orally or in writing, any false or misleading statement in any communication with any investor or prospective investor, about: (A) any investment in or offering of securities, (B) the registration status of such offering or of such securities, (C) the prospects for success of any product or company, (D) the use of investor funds, or (E) the misappropriation of investor funds or investment proceeds.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d)(2), the foregoing paragraph also binds the following who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise: (a) any of Stenger's officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys; and (b) other persons in active concert or participation with Stenger.

II.

CONDUCT BASED INJUNCTION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, pursuant to Section 21(d)(5) of the Exchange Act, Section 305(b)(5) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and the Court's equitable powers, unless modified by the Court upon application by Stenger, Stenger is permanently restrained and enjoined from, directly or indirectly, including through any entity he owns or controls: (a) participating in the issuance, offer or sale of any securities issued through the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program (provided, however, that such injunction would not prevent him from purchasing or selling securities for his own accounts); and (b) is prohibited from participating in the management, administration, or supervision of, or otherwise exercising any control over, any commercial enterprise or project that has issued or is issuing any securities through the EB-5 Immigrant Investor program, except for work undertaken by Stenger, under the supervision and direction of the Receiver, to continue to cooperate with the Receiver in the Receiver's management, administration and operation of the commercial enterprises and projects that comprise the Receivership.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d)(2), the foregoing paragraph also binds the following who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise: (a) any of Stenger's officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys; and (b) other persons in active concert or participation with Stenger.

III.

CIVIL PENALTY

IT IS FUTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Stenger may be directed to pay a civil penalty pursuant to Section 20(d) of the Securities Act (15 U.S.C. § 77t(d)) and Section 21(d)(3) of the Exchange Act (15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)(3)). The Court shall determine the amount of the civil penalty, if any, upon motion of the Commission. Stenger neither admits nor denies the allegations of the Amended Complaint, however, in connection with the Commission's motion for a civil penalty and at any hearing held on such a motion: (a) Stenger will be precluded from arguing that he did not violate the federal securities laws as alleged in the Amended Complaint; (b) Stenger may not challenge the validity of the Consent or this Judgment; (c) solely for the purposes of such motion, the allegations of the Amended Complaint shall be accepted as and deemed true by the Court; and (d) the Court may determine the issues raised in the motion on the basis of affidavits, declarations, excerpts of sworn deposition or investigative testimony, and documentary evidence, without regard to the standards for summary judgment contained in Rule 56(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In connection with the Commission's motion for a civil penalty, the parties may take discovery, including discovery from appropriate non-parties.

IV.

INCORPORATION OF CONSENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Consent is incorporated herein with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein, and that Stenger shall comply with all of the undertakings and agreements set forth therein.

V.

BANKRUPTCY NONDISCHARGEABILITY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, solely for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 the Bankruptcy Code, including 11 U.S.C. § 523, the allegations in the Amended Complaint are true and admitted by Stenger, and further, any debt for civil penalty or other amounts due by Stenger under this Judgment or any other judgment, order, consent order, decree, or settlement agreement entered in connection with this proceeding, is a debt for the violation by Stenger of the federal securities laws or any regulation or order issued under such laws, as set forth in Section 523(a)(19) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(19).

VI.

RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

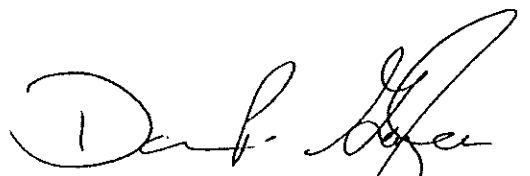

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter and Stenger in order to implement and carry out the terms of all Orders and Decrees that may be entered and/or to entertain any suitable application or motion for additional relief within the jurisdiction of this Court, and will order other relief that this Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

VII.

RULE 54(b) CERTIFICATION

There being no just reason for delay, pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Clerk is ordered to enter this Judgment forthwith and without further notice.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami, Florida, this 21st day of September, 2016.

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT WILLIAM STENGER TO JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF

1. Defendant William Stenger acknowledges having been served with the Summons and the Amended Complaint in this action, enters a general appearance, and admits the Court's jurisdiction over him and over the subject matter of this action.

WJ

2. Without admitting or denying the allegations of the Amended Complaint (except as provided in Paragraphs 3 and 13 herein and except as to personal and subject matter jurisdiction, which Stenger admits), Stenger hereby consents to entry of the Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief ("Judgment") in the form attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

3. Stenger agrees the Court may order a civil penalty pursuant to Section 20(d) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") (15 U.S.C. § 77u(d)) and Section 21(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") (15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)(3)). Stenger further agrees that the amount of the civil penalty, if any, shall be determined by the Court upon motion of the Commission. Stenger neither admits nor denies the allegations of the Amended Complaint, however, in connection with the Commission's motion for a civil penalty and at any hearing held on such a motion: (a) Stenger will be precluded from arguing that he did not violate the federal securities laws as alleged in the Amended Complaint; (b) Stenger may not challenge the validity of the Consent or this Judgment; (c) solely for the purposes of such motion, the allegations of the Amended Complaint shall be accepted as and deemed true by the Court; and (d) the Court may determine the issues raised in the motion on the basis of affidavits, declarations, excerpts of sworn deposition or investigative testimony, and documentary evidence, without regard to the standards for summary judgment contained in Rule 56(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In connection with the Commission's motion for a civil penalty, the parties may take discovery, including discovery from appropriate non-parties.

4. Stenger agrees that he shall not seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made pursuant to any insurance policy, with regard to any civil penalty amounts he may be required to pay pursuant to the Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors. Stenger further agrees that he shall not claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction or tax credit with regard to any federal, state, or local tax for any penalty amounts that Stenger pays pursuant to the Judgment, regardless of whether such penalty amounts or any part thereof are added to a distribution fund or otherwise used for the benefit of investors.

5. Stenger enters into this Consent voluntarily after consulting with undersigned counsel, and represents that no threats, offers, promises, or inducements of any kind have been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission to induce Stenger or anyone acting on his behalf to enter into this Consent.

6. Stenger agrees this Consent shall be incorporated into the Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

7. Stenger waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

8. Stenger agrees the Commission may present the attached proposed Judgment to the Court for signature and entry, and further agrees the Court shall retain jurisdiction over him and over the subject matter of this action.

9. Stenger waives any right he may have to appeal from the entry of the Judgment.

10. Stenger waives service of the Judgment once entered, and agrees the entry of the Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk in the Southern District of Florida will constitute notice to him the terms and conditions of the Judgment. Stenger further agrees to provide counsel for the Commission, within 30 days after the Judgment is filed with the Clerk of the

6/10
8/21/16

Court, with an affidavit or declaration stating that he has received and read a copy of the Judgment.

11. Stenger agrees he will not oppose the enforcement of the Judgment on the grounds, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection based thereon.

12. Consistent with 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(f), this Consent resolves only the claims asserted against Stenger in this civil proceeding. Stenger acknowledges that no promise or representation has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the Commission with regard to any criminal liability that may have arisen or may arise from the facts underlying this action or immunity from any such criminal liability. Stenger waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based on the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. Stenger further acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding. In addition, in any disciplinary proceeding before the Commission based on the entry of the injunction in this action, Stenger understands that he shall not be permitted to contest the factual allegations of the Amended Complaint in this action.

13. Stenger understands and agrees to comply with the terms of 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(e), which provide in part that it is the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the complaint or order for proceedings," and "a refusal to admit the allegations is equivalent to a denial, unless the defendant or respondent states that he neither admits nor denies the allegations." As part of Stenger's agreement to comply with the terms of Section 202.5(e), Stenger: (i) will not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Amended Complaint or creating the impression that the Amended Complaint is without factual basis; (ii) will not make or permit to be made any public statement to the effect that Stenger does not admit the allegations of the Amended Complaint, or that this Consent contains no admission of the allegations, without also stating that Defendant does not deny the allegations; (iii) upon the filing of this Consent, Stenger hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Amended Complaint; and (iv) stipulates solely for purposes of exceptions to discharge set forth in Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523, that the allegations in the Amended Complaint are true, and further, that any debt for civil penalty or other amounts due by Stenger under the Judgment or any other judgment, order, consent order, decree or settlement agreement entered in connection with this proceeding, is a debt for the violation by Stenger of the federal securities laws or any regulation or order issued under such laws, as set forth in Section 523(a)(19) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §523(a) (19). If Stenger breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this paragraph affects Stenger's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

WJS

WJ 8/24/16

14. Stenger hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by Stenger to defend against this action. For these purposes, Stenger agrees he is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

15. In connection with this action and any related judicial or administrative proceeding or investigation commenced by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party, Stenger (i) agrees to appear and be interviewed by Commission staff at such times and places as the staff requests upon reasonable notice; (ii) will accept service by mail or facsimile transmission of notices or subpoenas issued by the Commission for documents or testimony at depositions, hearings, or trials, or in connection with any related investigation by Commission staff; (iii) appoints Stenger's undersigned attorney as agent to receive service of such notices and subpoenas; (iv) with respect to such notices and subpoenas, waives the territorial limits on service contained in Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules, provided that the party requesting the testimony reimburses Stenger's travel, lodging, and subsistence expenses at the then-prevailing U.S. Government per diem rates; and (v) consents to personal jurisdiction over Stenger in any United States District Court for purposes of enforcing any such subpoena.
